

First-Time-In-College International Admission Credentials

International applicants from the countries/regions below are not required to present an academic evaluation from a NACES member if they are able to provide the corresponding required credentials. In addition to their internal secondary school transcript, applicants must have their counselor/designated school official submit certified copies of all final and/or projected grades for national standardized examinations via Common App (or via postal mail). For final results, a notary public or designated school official (e.g. registrar) may certify these documents as true copies of the original certificate. If your certificates/test results are not in English, a translation is required. If you did not study in one of the curriculums below, a NACES evaluation is required.

International Students Studying a US-based Curriculum

If you are an international student who will graduate with a U.S. high school diploma, or you are a Canadian high school student, please follow the Domestic Admission requirements. If you previously attended a non-US high school, please ensure that you also submit certified copies of your academic records from your previous institution.
